The sales will be on until January 25th, so don't miss the moment to buy one of the best fashions of the year. Enjoy the new year![The effect of monensin on phenotypic transformation in L5178Y cells]. The investigation was concerned with the phenotypic transformation of mouse L5178Y cells in the presence of the sodium salt of monensin. The optimum growth conditions were revealed for this salt in the range of concentration 1-10 microM. The maximum anti-tumour activity was observed after treatment of the cells with a combination of monensin and gamma-radiation. The irradiation influence was shown to be compensated for by increasing the monensin dosage to 50 microM.Chafing dishes are typically used to hold food during a party or buffet-style social gathering. During such gatherings, usually all the food placed on the chafing dish will eventually be consumed by the party-goers. Thus, the food, whether hot or cold, is routinely replenished in the chafing dish before the food on the dish is finished. Chafing dishes, which conventionally include a perforated metal tray having side-walls and top and bottom walls, have been around for many years.
