Patentability! patentability This is a 3-step test.

For more information, click on the links below:

Step 1: EXECUTION TESTING You may be late to the patent game, or you may want to take a quick look at your patent application before proceeding to the next step of patenting it. In this step, your invention is tested for compliance with the patent laws. This step is an important one that ensures the patent that you are seeking won't violate other patent laws in your country.

Step 2: PTO PROTECTION This step of the process is where we help you receive protection for your invention so you can go after it legally and it won't be used by others. This step will also help to protect your invention for you and
